

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Director, DCS
 Attn : Alien Staff [ ]
 FROM : Chief [ ]
 SUBJECT: Case 32254 -- Fred Z. Launags

DATE: 8 March 1967
 POR-18-67

1. On 6 March 1967 the following letter was received at his home by [ ] from Subject who wrote from Myrtle Point, Oregon:

"Sorry having mixed up the state boundaries, but don't all the states belong to the bureaucrats in Washington, anyway? Weather keeps bearable. Complaints won't change it, anyway.

"Work could be enjoyable if not the too eager-beaverish guys of the basic training bunch who spoil each working day. But we are working in a huge cemetery so it may be in place, anyway.

"Your driver, Mr. Howkins (?), is well mannered. Only once he fell down in my eyes: not keeping his word as to the staying at the hotel when it is snowing. Will learn to live and work with me, anyway.

"Next weekend I intend to visit Portland, take a good sauna bath and American massage. Could you make the reservations at the Portland Hilton (not over $14 p.d.) and send me some $25? I'm running out of funds, and my first salary is too far away, anyway."

Otherwise getting wild westernized, Fred"

2. In response to Launags' request, [ ] made a reservation for him at the Portland Hilton Hotel for Saturday night, 11 March, and sent him a $25.00 money order.
